DICK STARK

German born HEINZ BAUM displays a magnificent back spread. Although 20-year old Heinz shows promise in his office job, he yearns to be a model so he can pose in the great outdoors and display his healthy physique.

PAOLO AND HEINZ

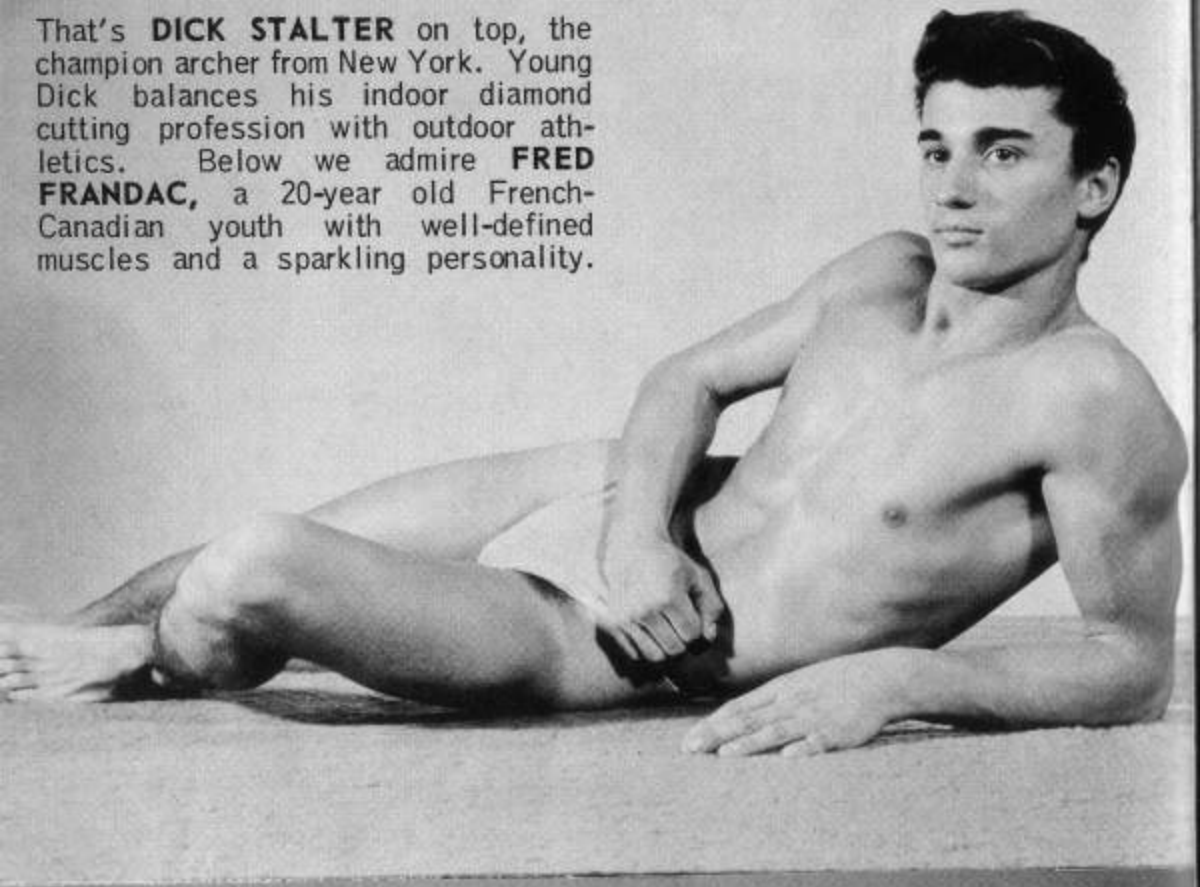
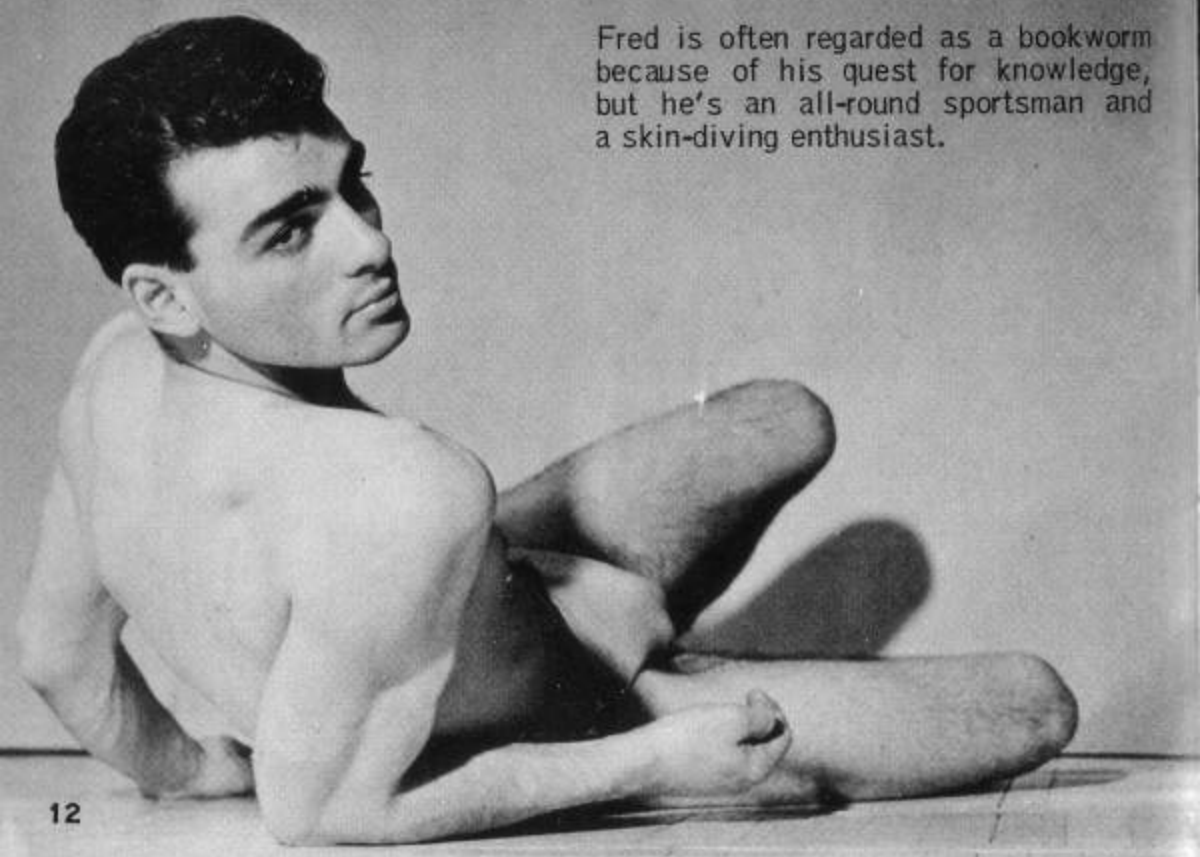
Half-reclining in the water is 17-year old LANCE YORK, a native New Jersey bodybuilder and athlete. An ardent football player on his high school team, this tow head won honors in physique contests and sports events.. Hopes to become a pro fullback.

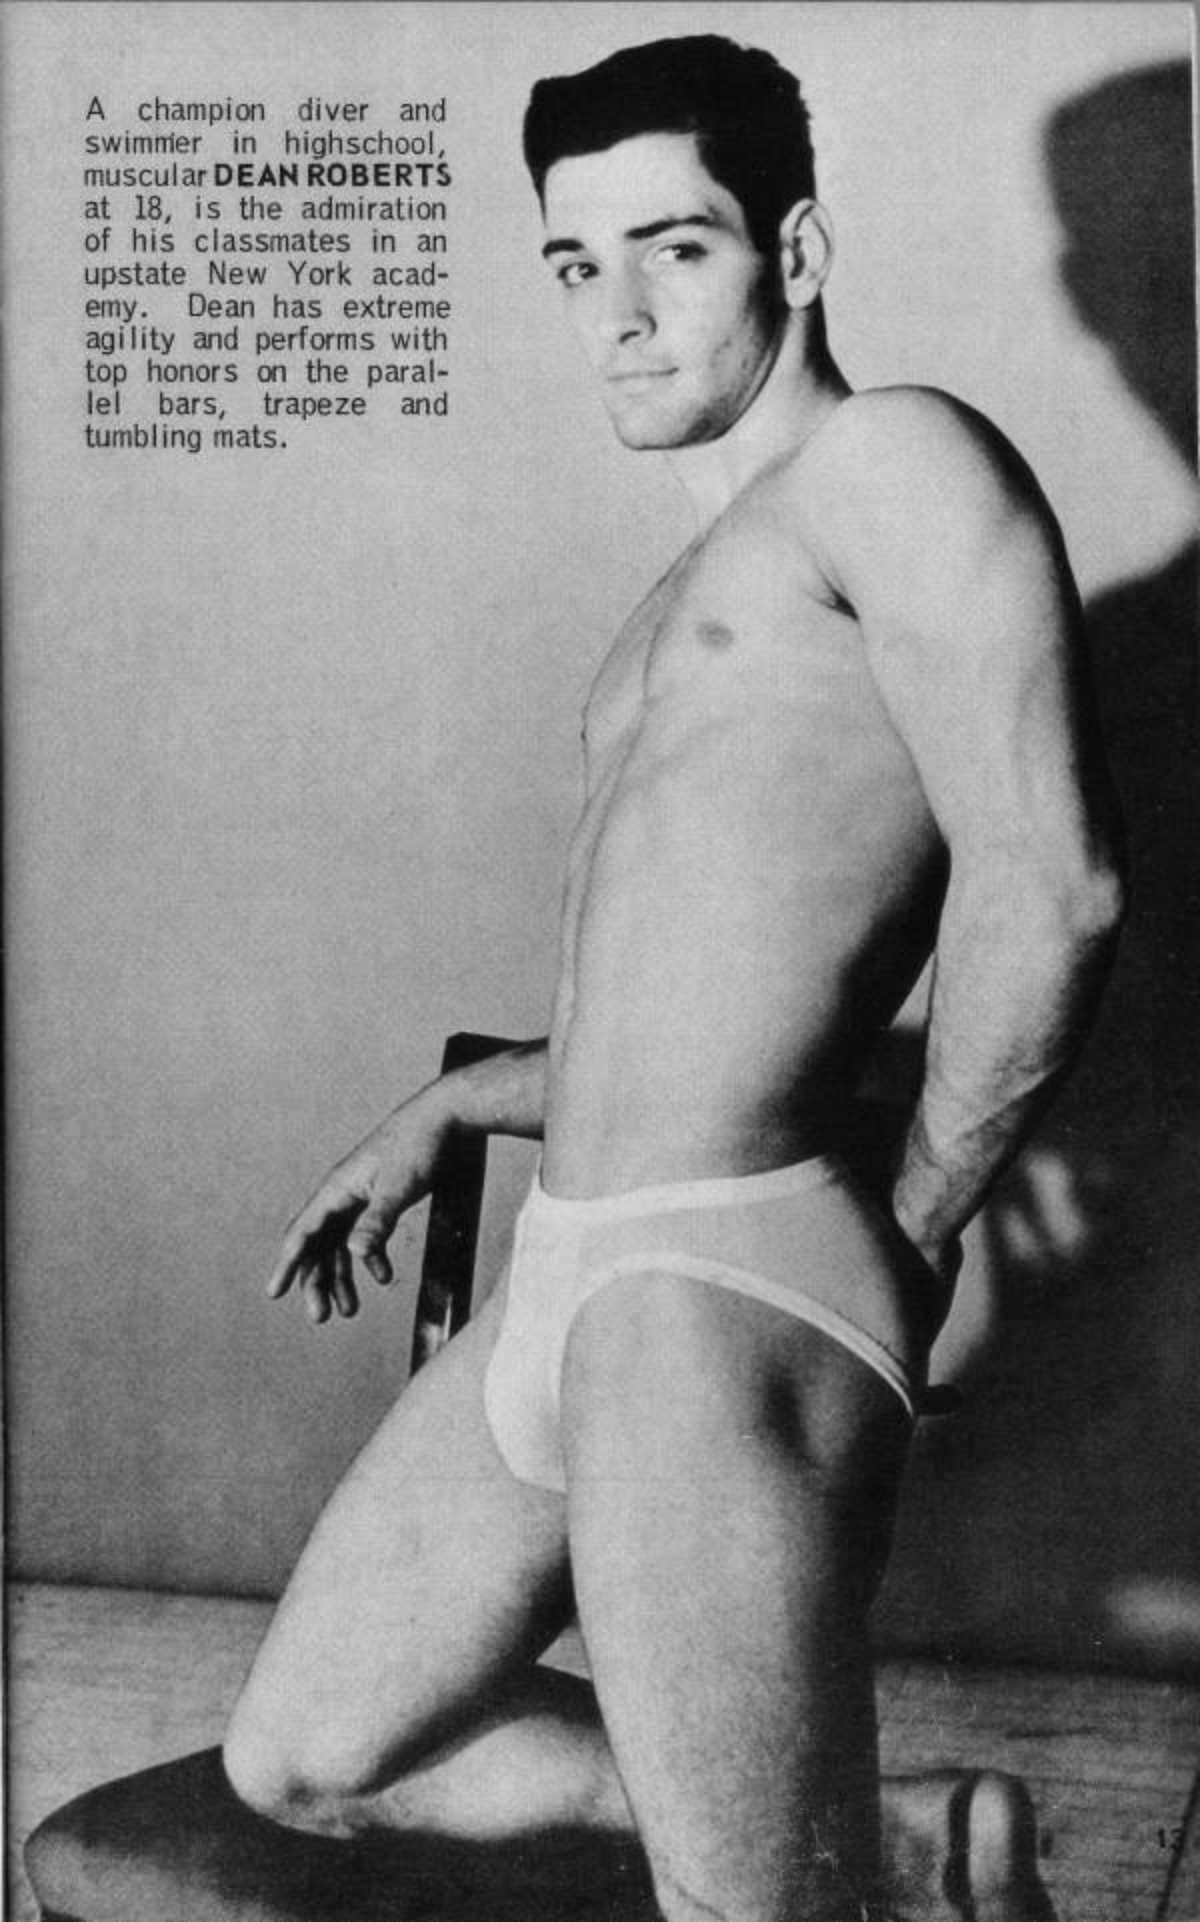
LANCE YORK

That's DICK STALTER on top, the champion archer from New York. Young Dick balances his indoor diamond cutting profession with outdoor athletics. Below we admire FRED FRANDAC, a 20-year old French-Canadian youth with well-defined muscles and a sparkling personality.



Fred is often regarded as a bookworm because of his quest for knowledge, but he's an all-round sportsman and a skin-diving enthusiast.

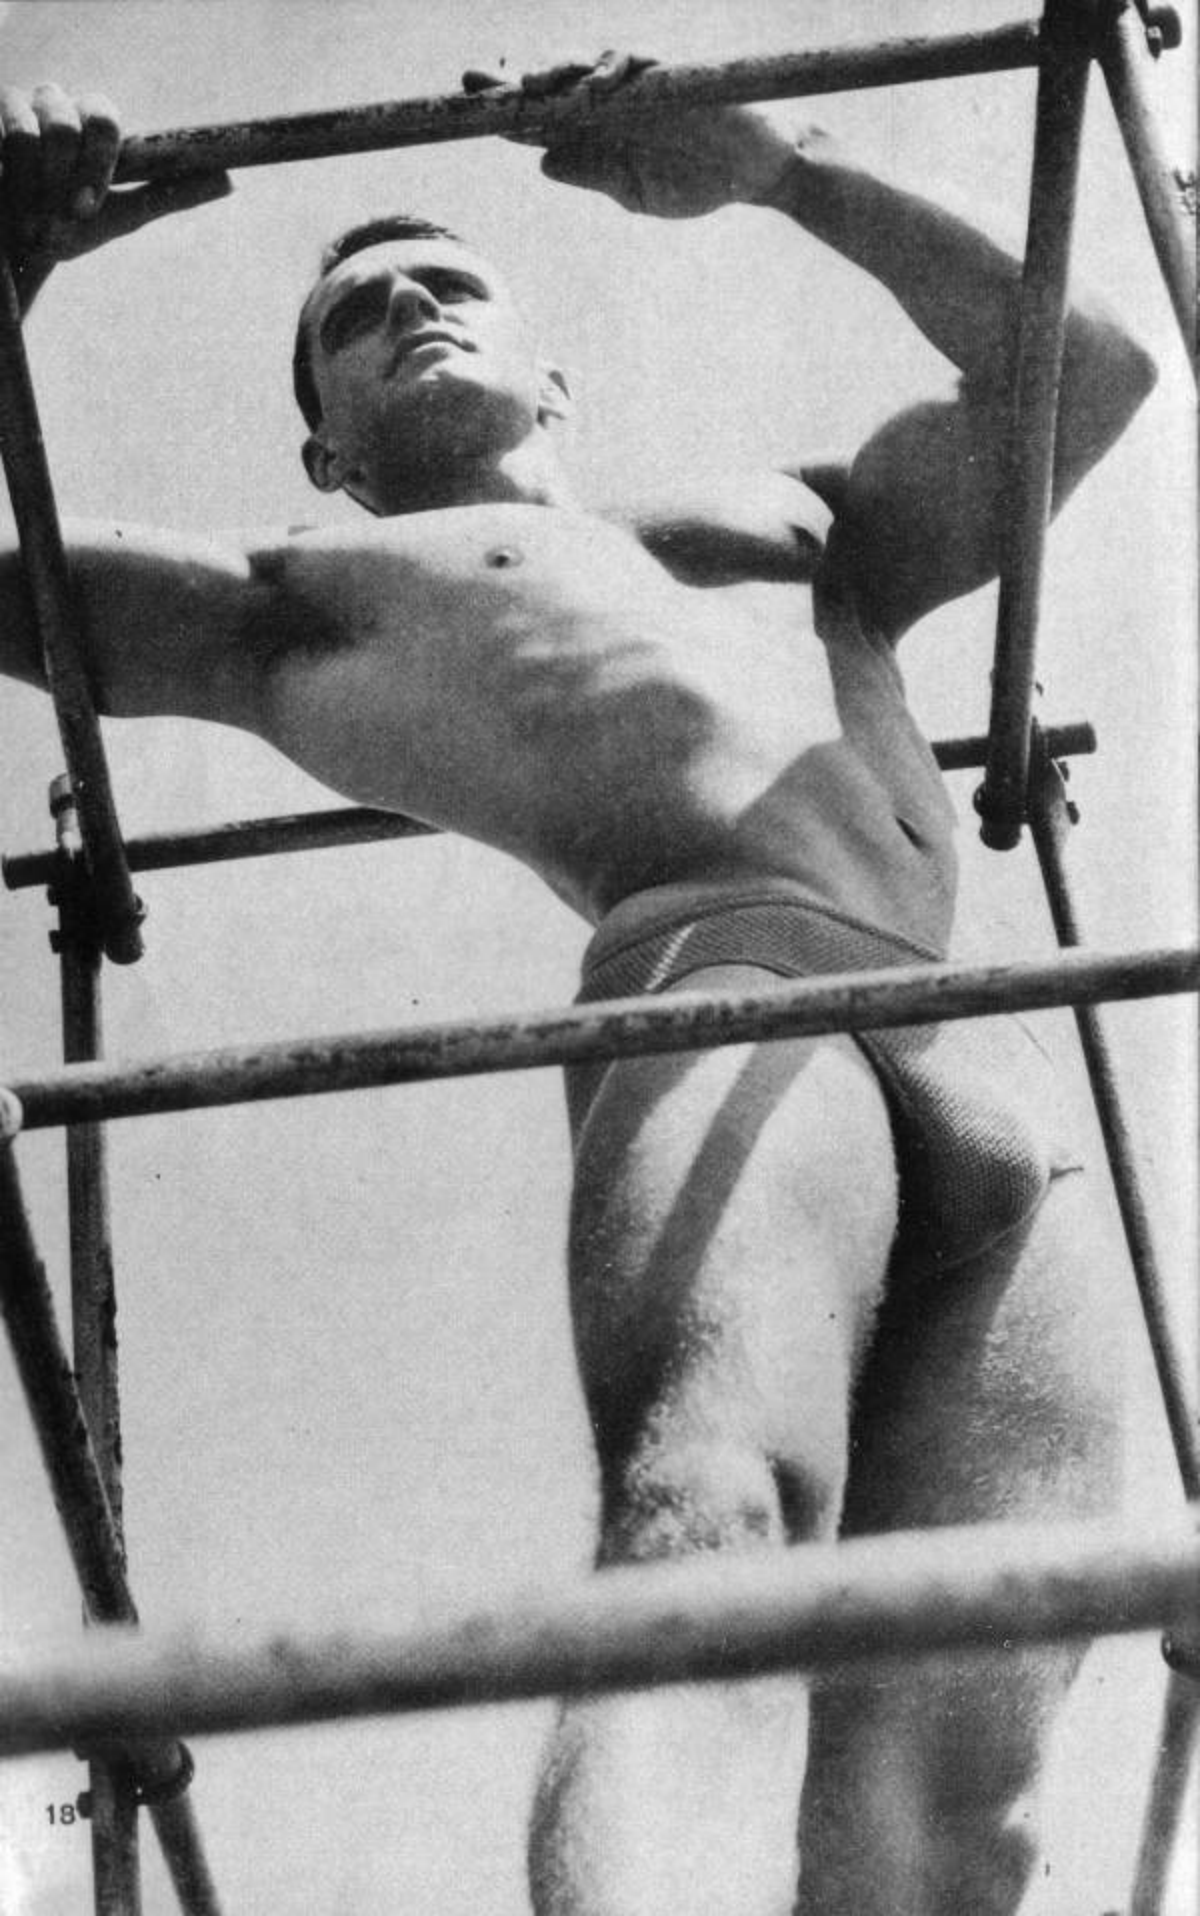


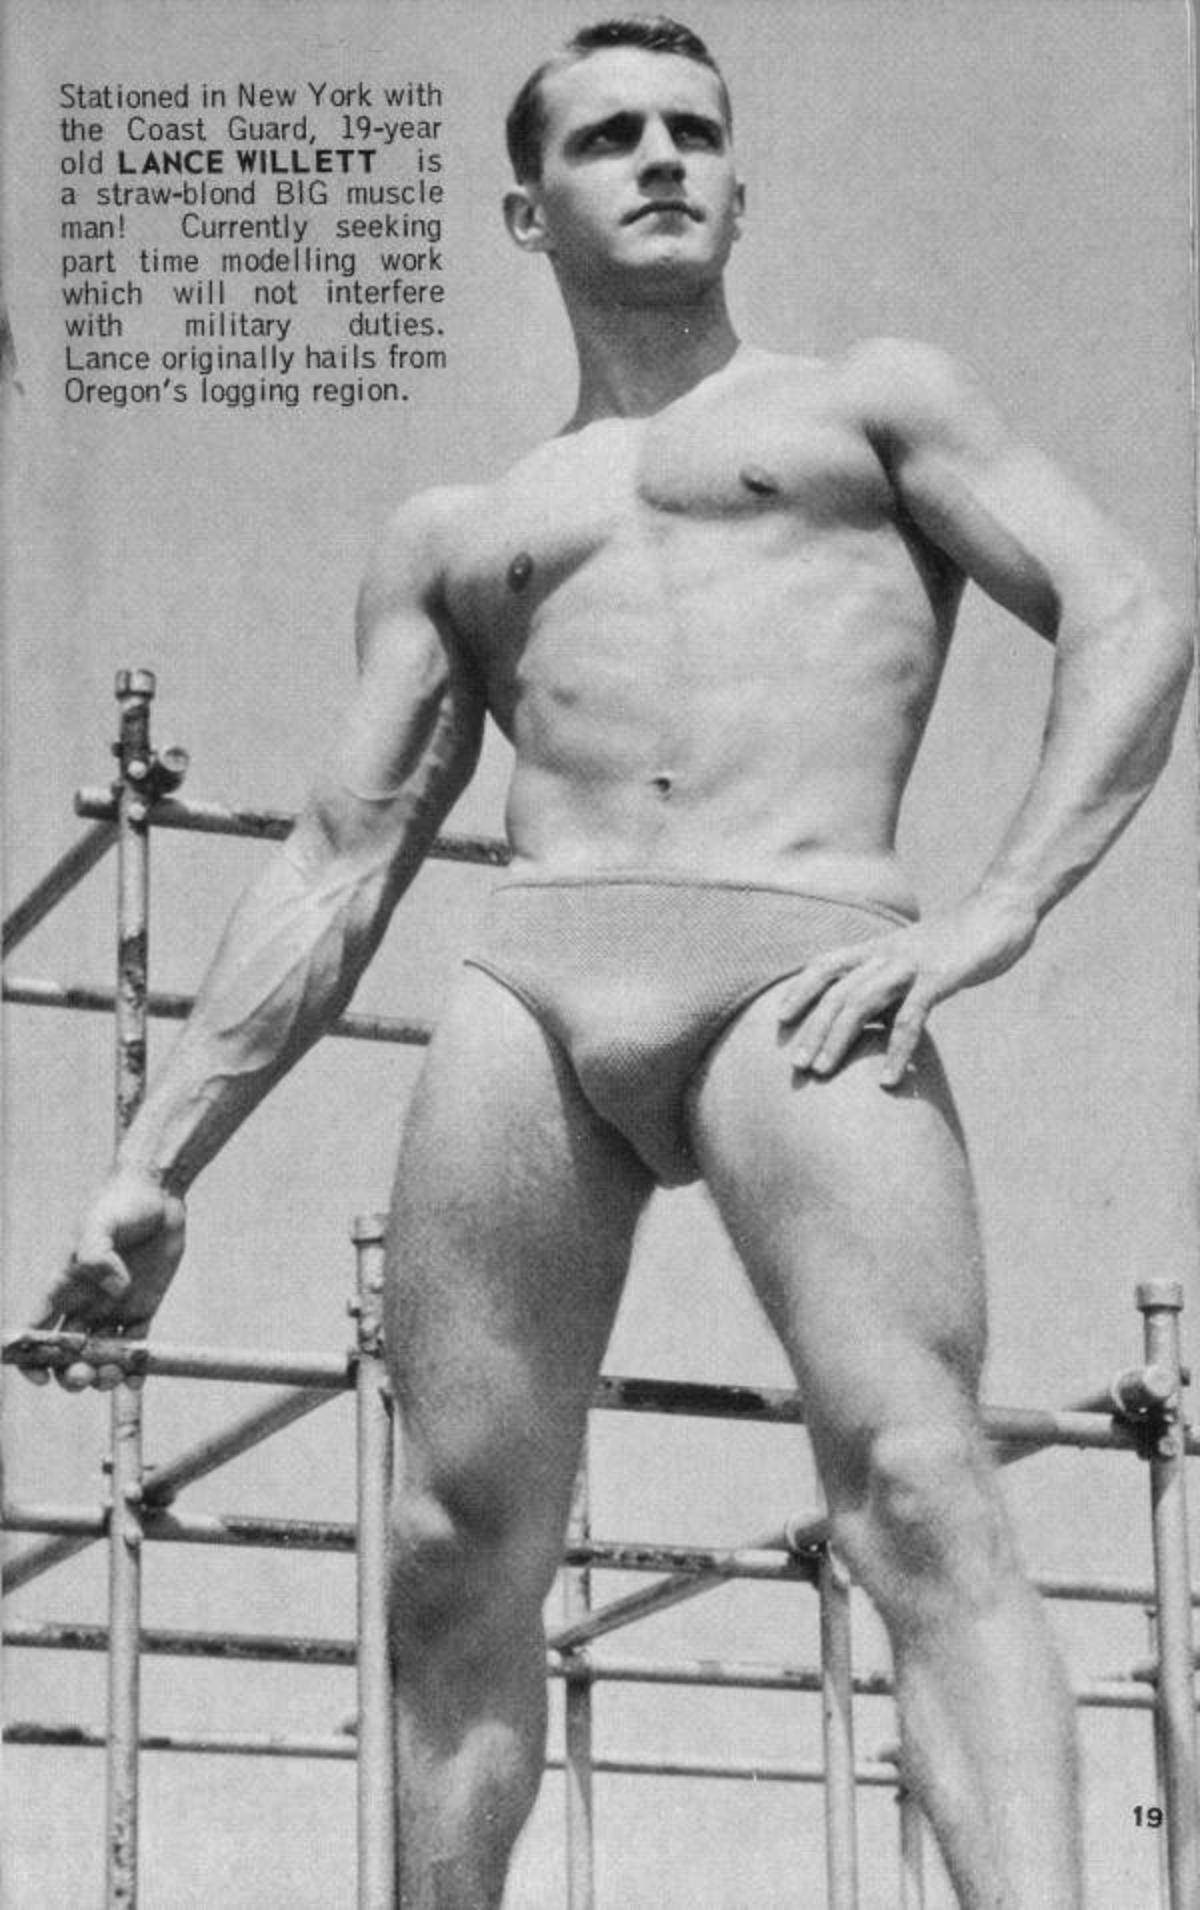


A champion diver and swimmer in highschool, muscular DEAN ROBERTS at 18, is the admiration of his classmates in an upstate New York academy. Dean has extreme agility and performs with top honors on the parallel bars, trapeze and tumbling mats.

Careful, HAYDEN WEST, don't throw that beach ball at us! Here is a flaxen-haired 18-year old swimming champ who devotes two hours daily in building up his 6'1" body with heavy barbells. The pride of New Jersey, he hopes to become a physical education instructor.

At 19, dark-haired LUCKY MOORE is already a halfback on the front line college team. His healthy looks and love of physical development comes from his Irish-Cherokee Indian ancestry. Keeps busy as a part-time model.





Stationed in New York with the Coast Guard, 19-year old LANCE WILLETT is a straw-blond BIG muscle man! Currently seeking part time modelling work which will not interfere with military duties. Lance originally hails from Oregon's logging region.

THE BIG MAN

THE YOUNG MEN OF OUR NATION HAVE BEEN ALERTED!

A plea for superior physical fitness and athletic development has been sounded by President John F. Kennedy. Ever aware of the need for top-notch mental alertness and maximum physical health, leading educators and professional athletes have joined our President in a program to improve the overall health of the youth of America.

BIG MAGAZINE has long maintained that athletics, outdoor and indoor recreational activities, weight training and gym workouts are the keys that will unlock the door leading to vibrant health for youth. You may enjoy swimming, diving, basketball, football, track, archery, even ice hockey – all are beneficial to your health. A well-rounded program that balances mental improvement with physical development should be YOUR goal. Need any inspiration? Want any rewards? Just look at the superior development of the handsome, rugged and intelligent bodybuilders on these pages. YOU, too, can become BIG – study, exercise, play!

BIG

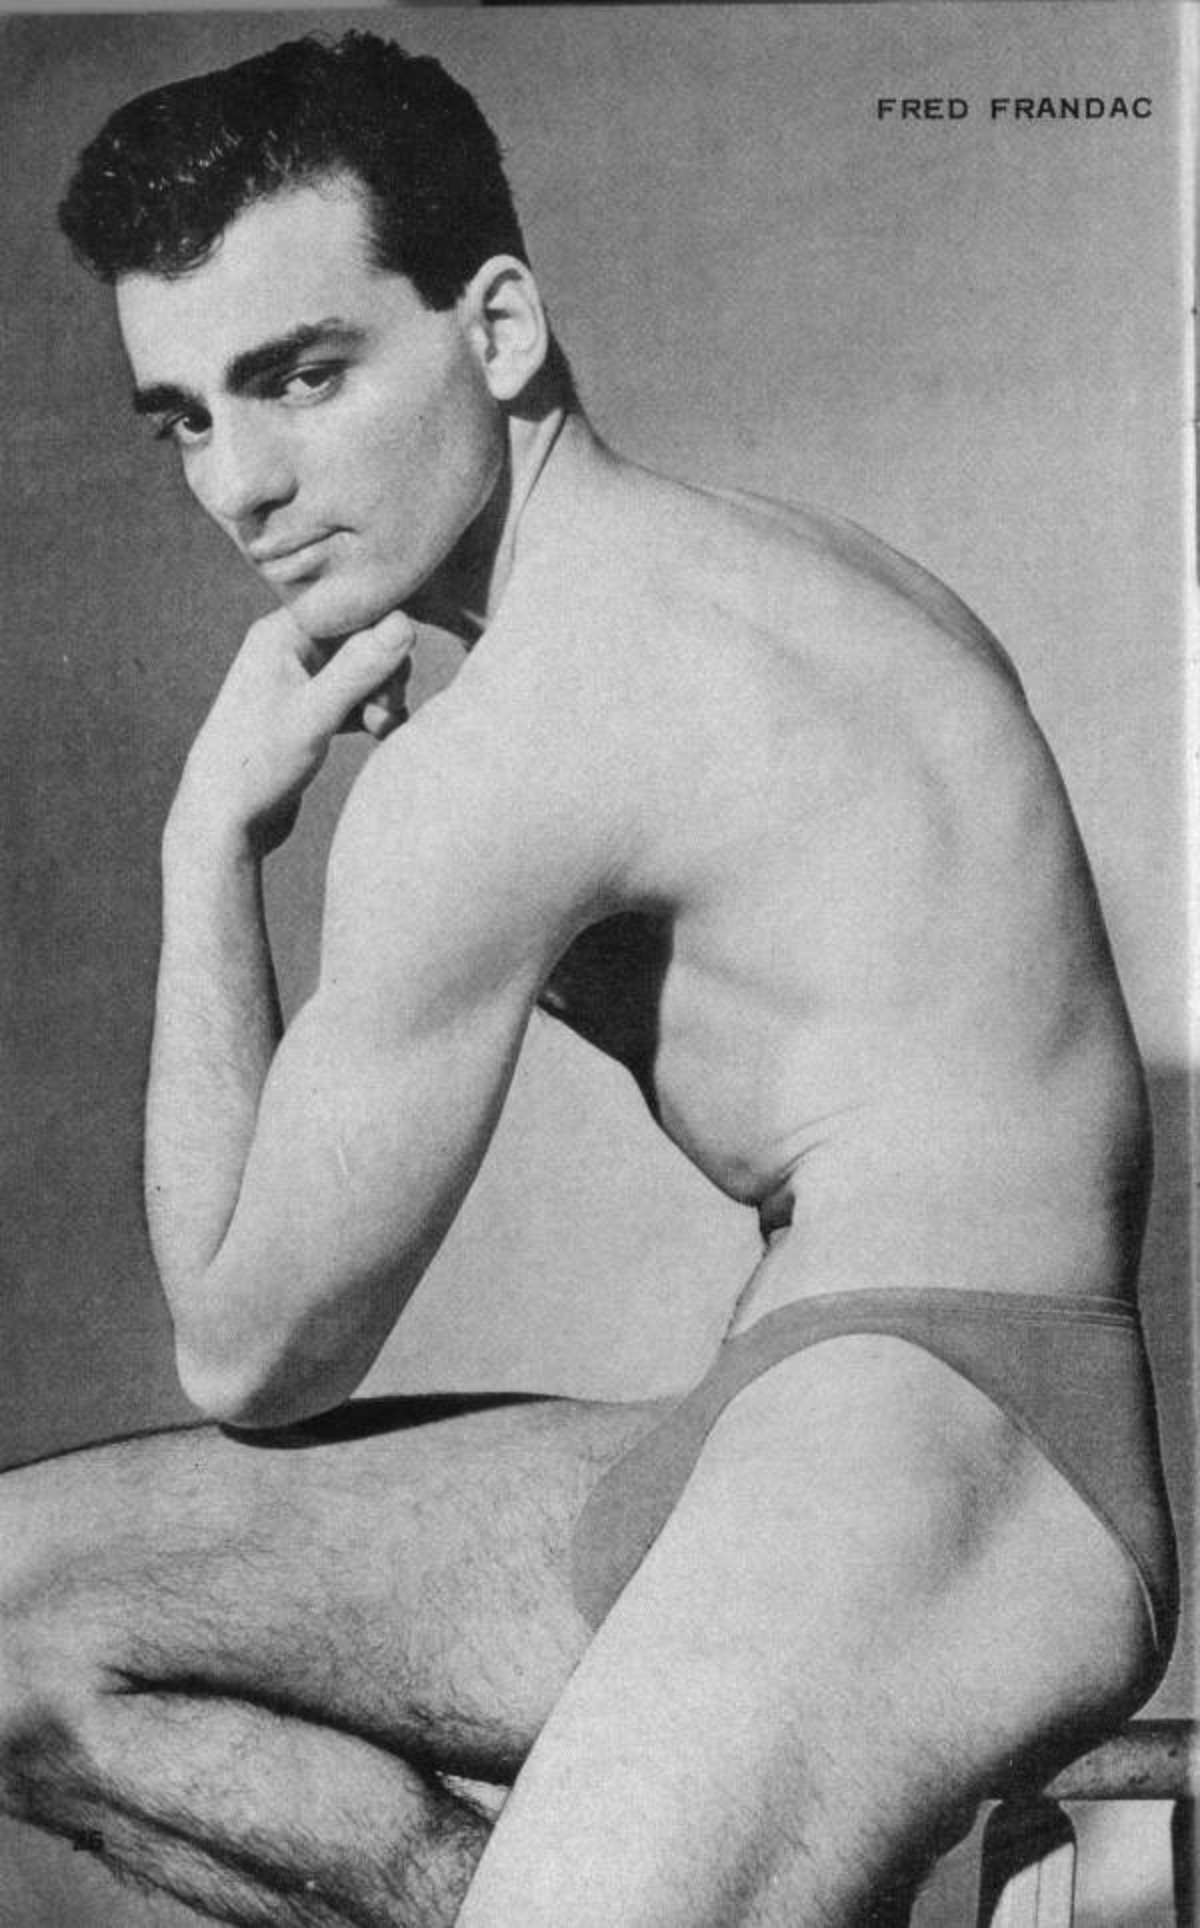
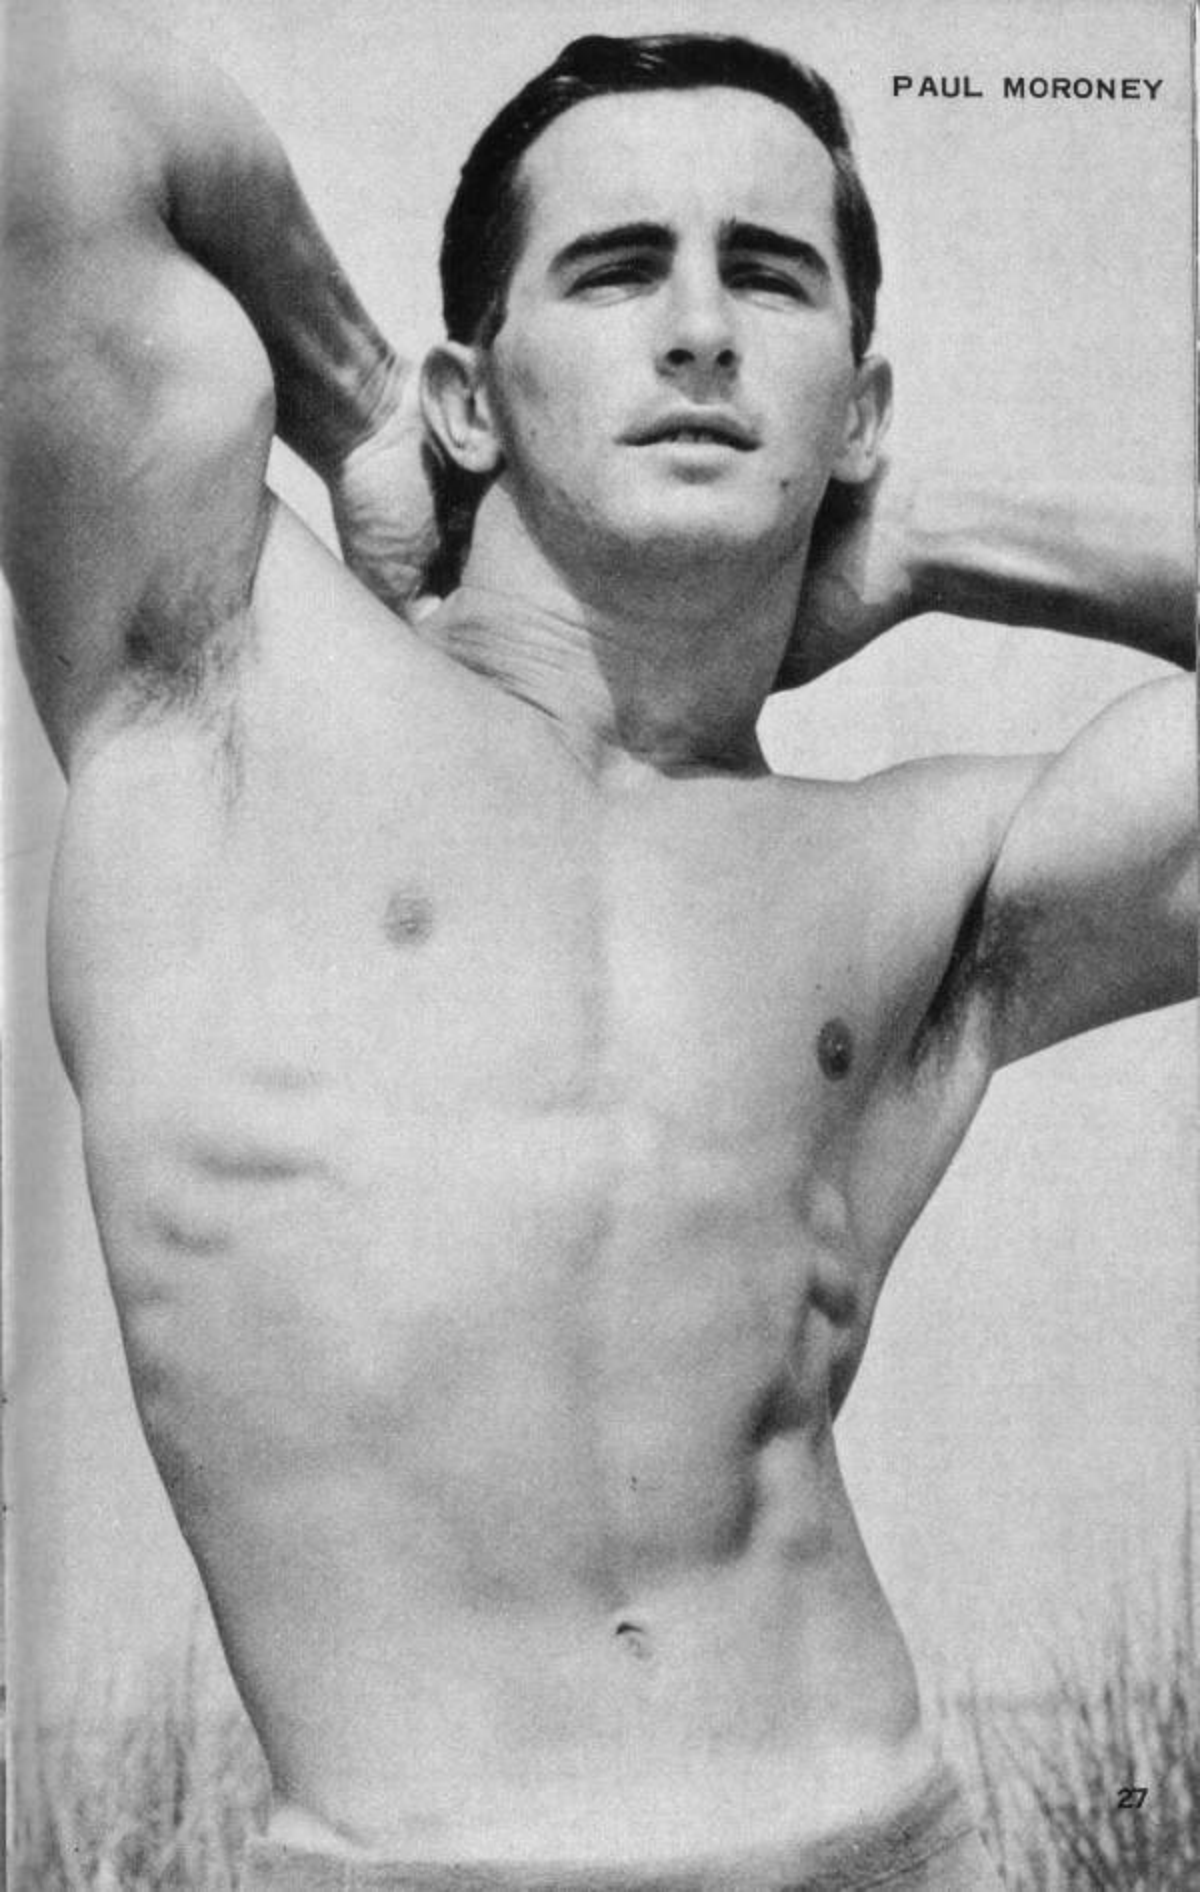
At 18, TOM STOREY has already distinguished himself as a lifeguard on the Virginia coast. He's studying agriculture in college. Already cited by his athletic coach for having superior muscular development.

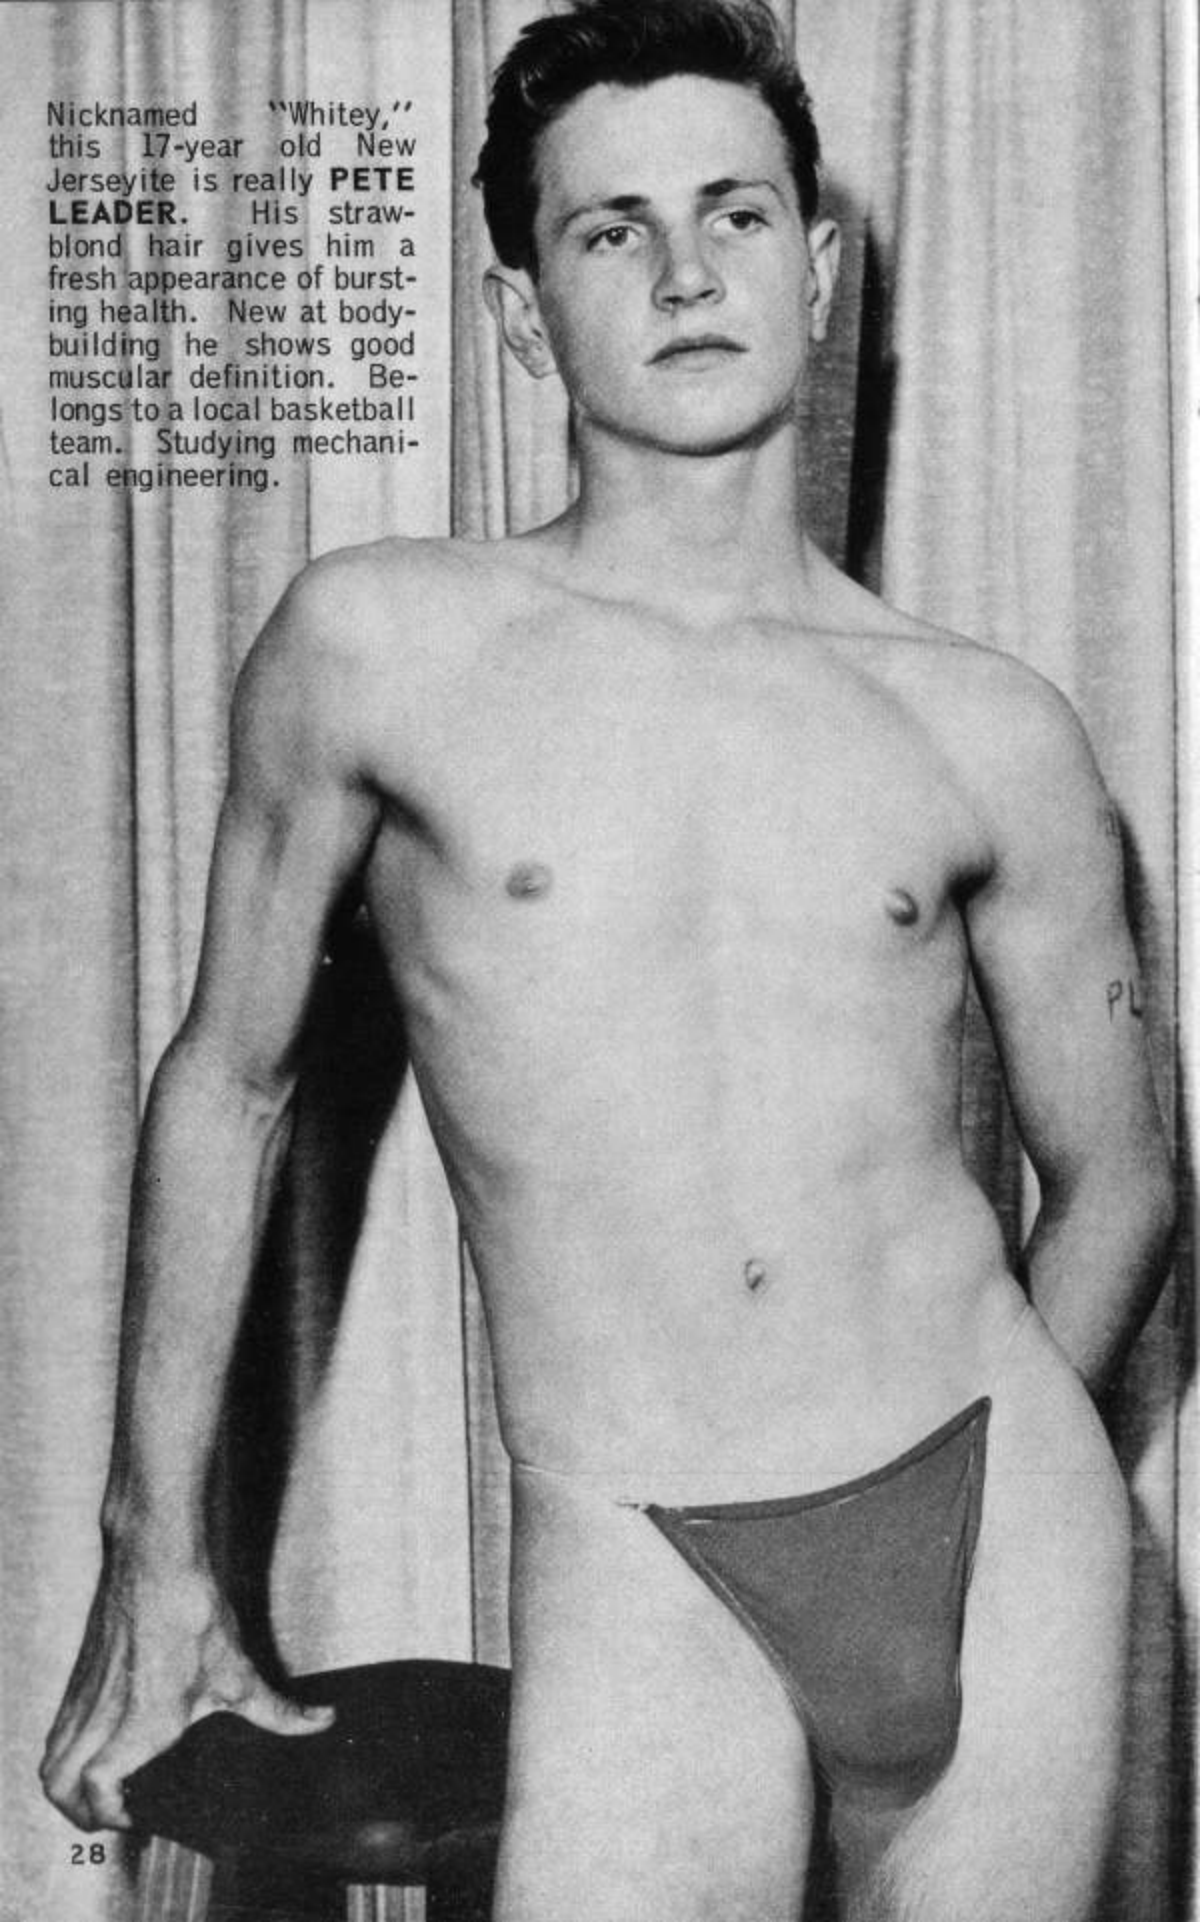
Everyone admires dark-haired ROGER DIXON who recently joined a neighborhood club in a basement where budding athletes work out thrice weekly. Only 18, this clean cut 6'1½" Pennsylvania apprentice steel worker wants to go west and work on a ranch. Young Roger is also a surfboard fan.



FRED FRANDAC



PAUL MORONEY



Nicknamed "Whitey," this 17-year old New Jerseyite is really PETE LEADER. His straw-blond hair gives him a fresh appearance of bursting health. New at body-building he shows good muscular definition. Belongs to a local basketball team. Studying mechanical engineering.

Standing 6', 19-year old CLIF DOLLARD is working as a steel rigger in an upstate New York plant. But he is doing fashion modelling part time and has built a small but well-equipped work out room in a corner of the barn adjoining his parents' home. Plays football. May soon become a handsome cover boy!

The ever-popular JIM STRYKER shown at a New York beach where he develops his rugged physique by underwater diving. Jim is a long-time favorite in this body-building field and has been seen in many magazines. You may recall that he was studying dramatics. Well, we hear he has been given a promising part in a forthcoming play. Lots of luck, Jim.
